Cindy Niederman, our newly crowned queen poses proudly with Dave Loflin, being escorted with Ken Mills, and reigning supremely over the homecoming dance.

On October 8, 1976, West Rowan held its annual homecoming dance. The weather was normal for a West dance; it rained. The ball game was rained out, but the crowning of the 1976-1977 homecoming queen was scheduled for 9:00. Last year's queen, Darlene Cline, crowned our new queen, Cindy Niederman. Afterwards the dance was held in the gymnasium with FLIGHT as the band. Cindy, escorted by Ken Mills, danced the first traditional dance. There was much hard work done on the part of the cheerleaders and the student council who promoted special events each day of the week and decorated for a successful dance.

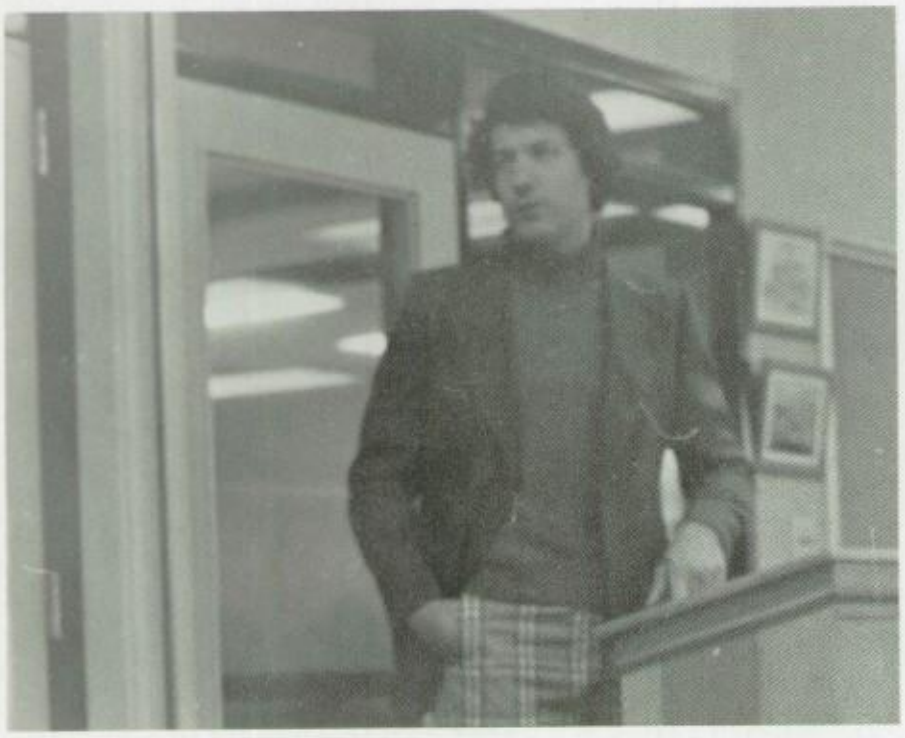
American Education Week



This year, as in years past, Mrs. Sloop and Miss Edmundson created a success of American Education Week, one of the best in West Rowan's history, with topics ranging from Soviet Russia to experiences in television and radio.

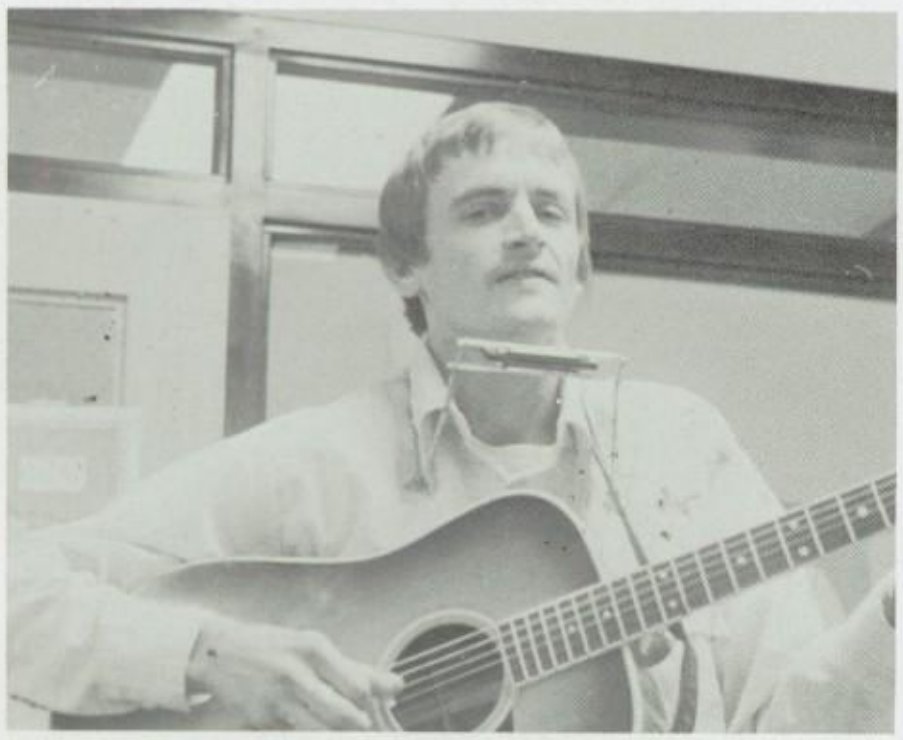
The FTA was busy with many activities all week long. On Wednesday, the FTA honored the teachers with a tea where small baked gifts were gifts to the teachers attending. Club members also arranged lunches for the speakers.

Mike McKay was the speaker on Monday. Mr. McKay works for WBTV in Charlotte, and is host for "Those Were The Years". He told students of his experiences in television and told how to become a television commentator.

Betty Jones' topic was drama. Ms. Jones, once an actress in New York, and Woman of the Year for Essence Magazine, demonstrated her talents and knowledge of the theatre through students who volunteered to read parts of scripts.

Mr. Bob Rosen and his wife Andrea Splittberger—Rosen showed their talent through their music. Mr. Rosen is a percussionist and his wife is a clarinetist.

Joseph Myers was guest speaker all day except for one period. Mr. Myers and his wife spoke on reincarnation and on pyramids. Mr. Myers had built a pyramid in his back yard in which he meditates.



Mrs. Ellen Johnston spoke to the students on poetry. She amazed students by showing them how just an ordinary sentence can be inspiration for her work.

Artist Ms. Lea Lackey demonstrated her art work to the students. She also showed them how to make a "silk screen" print and motifs.

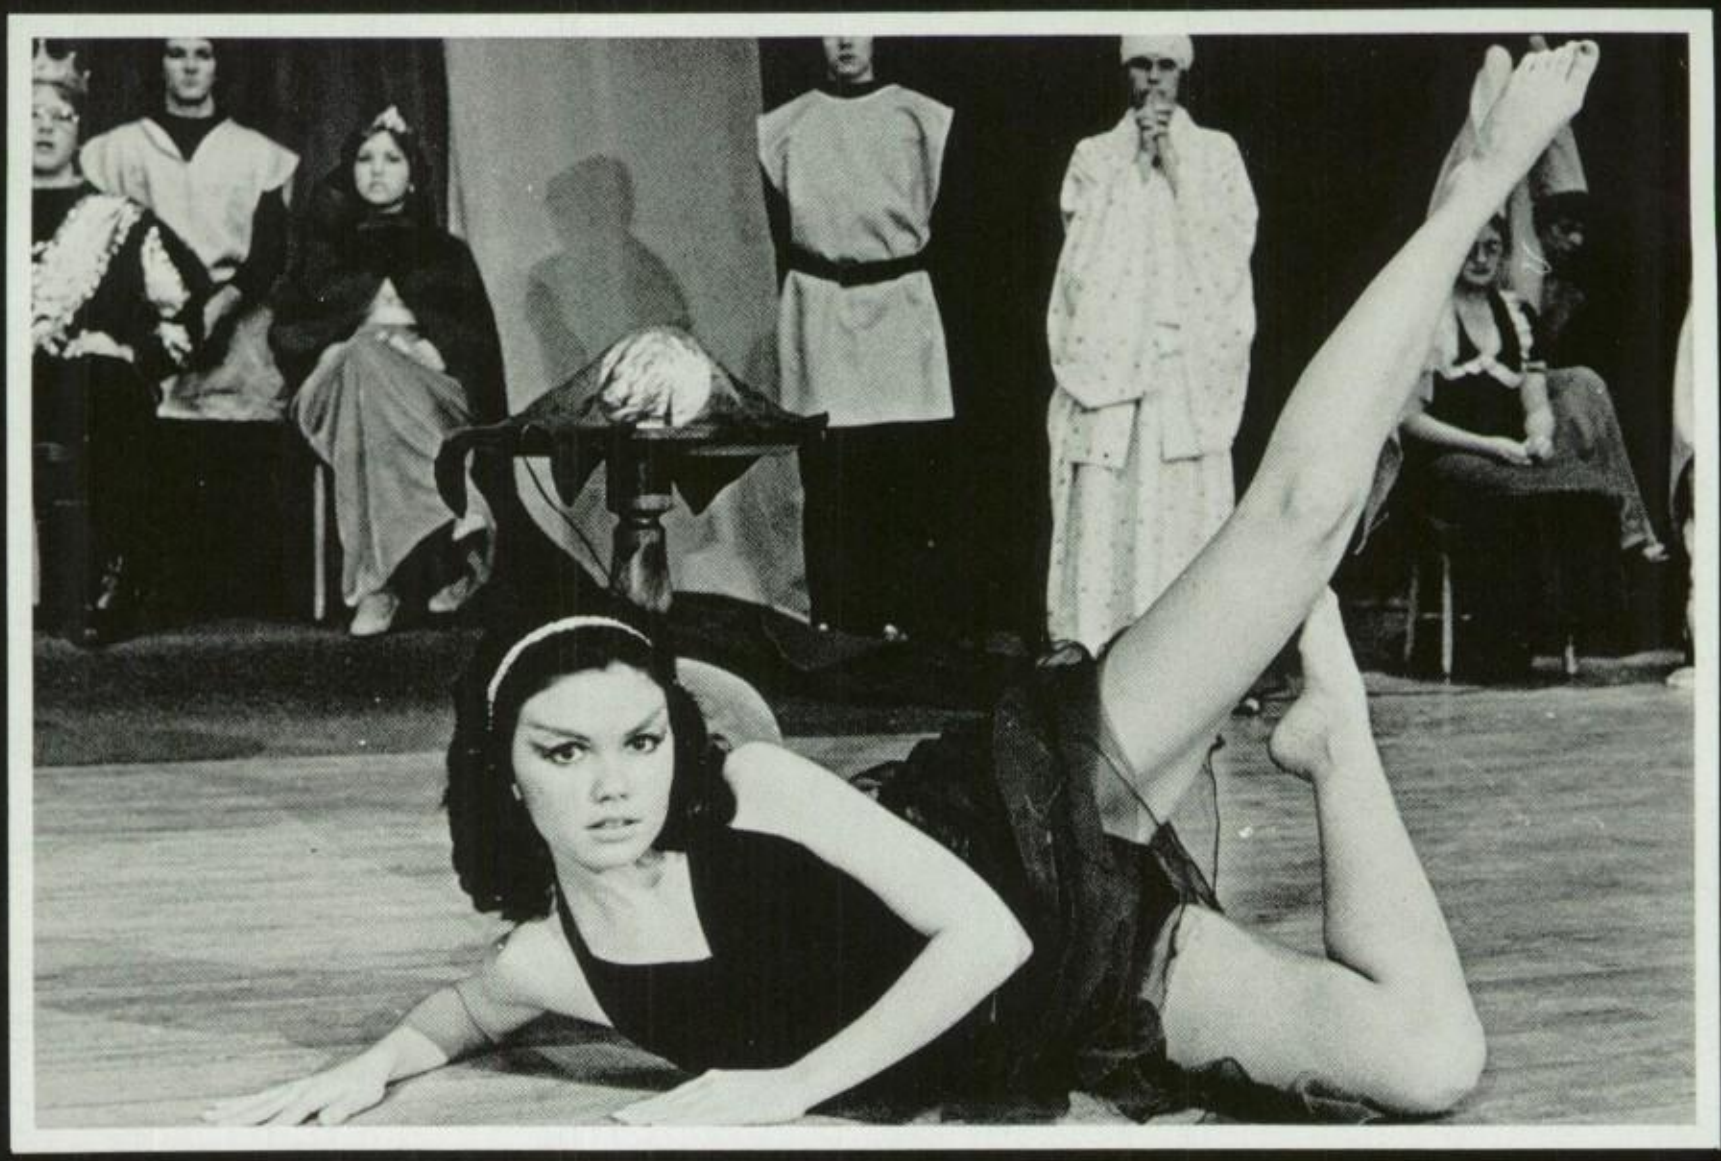
John Hall, a graduate of West Rowan, demonstrated his dexterity in playing musical instruments.

Mitchell Mack was one of the most interesting speakers all week long. Mr. Mack's son was a member of the "moonie cult" until Mr. Mack kidnapped him. He told how simple it is to get caught up in these fraudulent organizations and once in, how difficult it is to get out.

Dr. Hughes, an expert on Soviet Union, showed slides of Russia and told how the government changed to Communism. The slides were very beautiful, and Dr. Hughes was very informative.

The juniors and seniors have been rewarded once again with a truly terrific week of interesting speakers.

November 15-19



Bandwagon 1976's "Camelot" started with a medieval swing as the show traveled back into the time of King Arthur. The transformation took place on the 18th and 19th of November with Charles Woods as Master of Ceremonies leading a band of traveling performers. The show was complete with King Arthur, Queen Guinevere, Merlin, Sir Lancelot, knights of the Round Table, and the ladies of the court.

The program started with the Rangerettes who did a routine to the tune of "Woodchoppers". Soul took over as Sisters to Brother performed "I Might Have A Chance With You". Amid shrieks and gasps of fear, Morgan La Faye (Eva Wetmore) ended the first act with a creative dance to the tune of "Devil Woman". The second act began with Bill Belk performing a sentimental song entitled "Desperado". Various comical sketches added a touch of laughter to the program such as Tide commercial, a hypochondriac at a doctor's office, the "Vindow Viper", and the King's "important papers". The program ended with the entire cast, led by the king and queen, boogying to the tune of "Sweet Home Alabama" performed by Bill Belk and James Reynolds. With the tremendous support of Mrs. Tralton and Mr. Cannon, Bandwagon proved again a success.

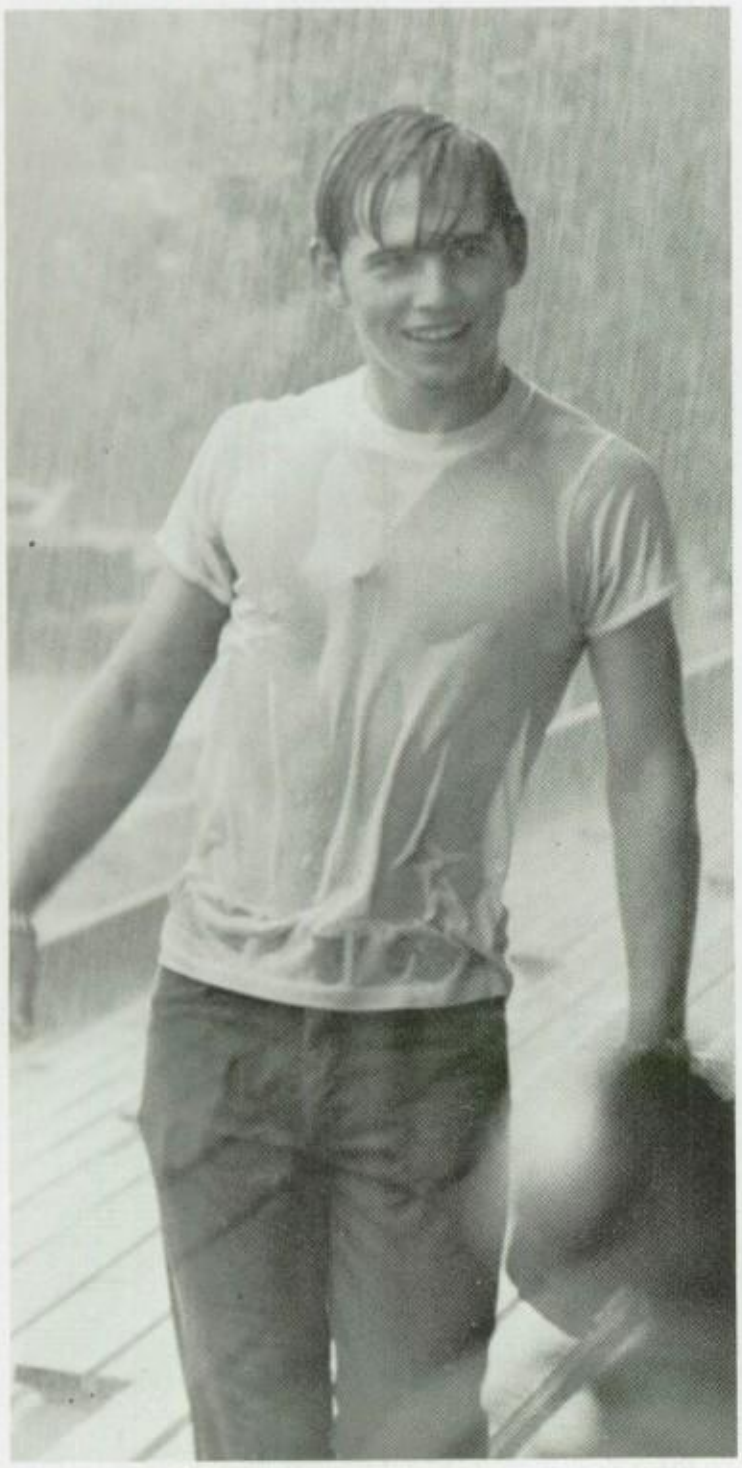
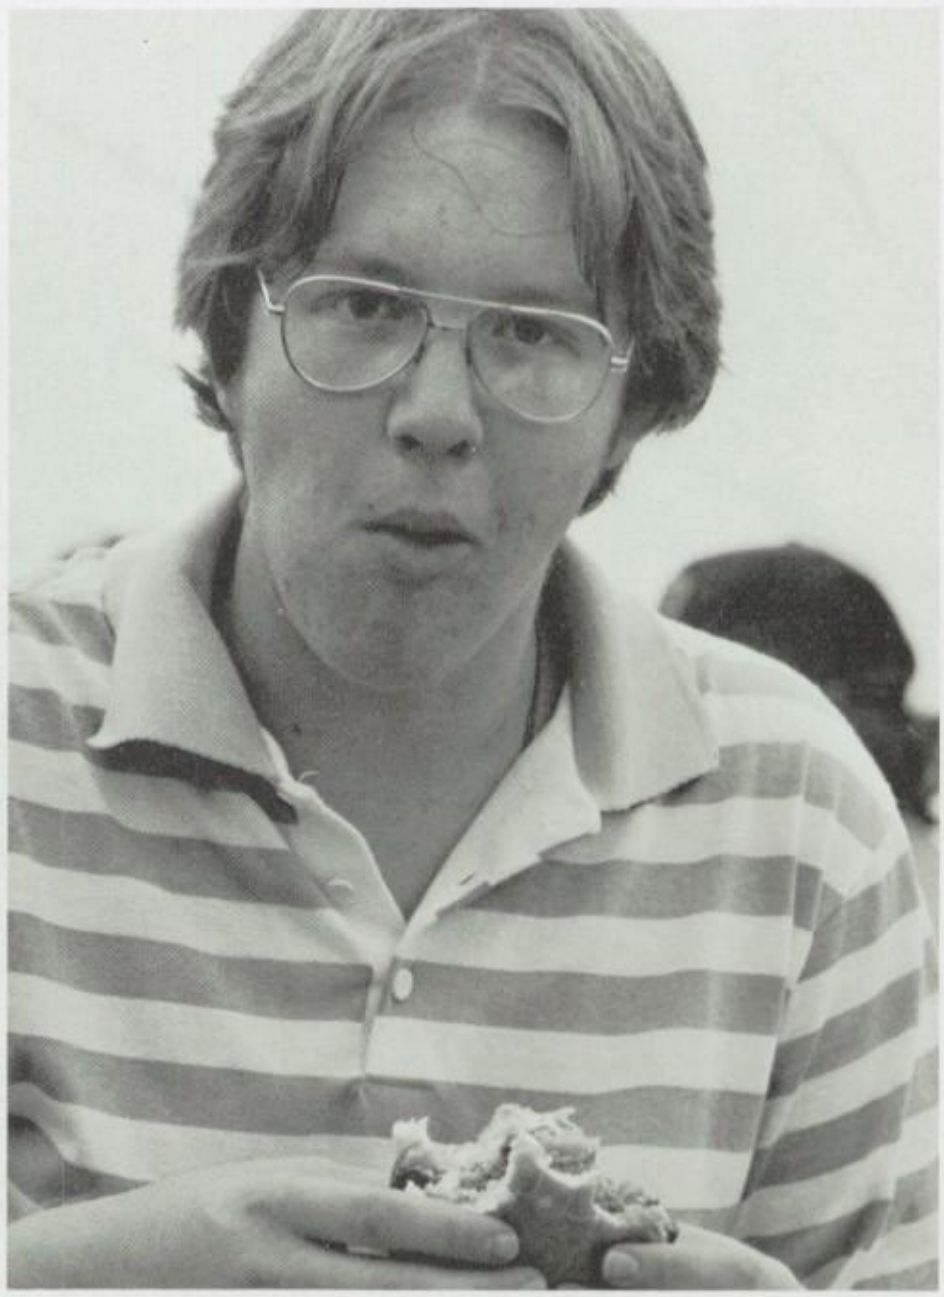
TROPICAL

West Rowan High School held its annual Junior-Senior Prom on Saturday, April 23, 1977 at the Crystal Lounge on the Catawba College Campus. Even though rain had been predicted, it was still a very promising evening. Entertainment was provided by "EARTHCHILD" which performed many of today's popular hits. This year's theme, "Tropical Dreams", was carried out with decorations including majestic palm trees, a bamboo archway, colorful paper flowers, and native tiki statues. Tim White, Master of Ceremonies, greeted the guests and then introduced Jon Barber. Jon, President of the Junior Class, welcomed the seniors and Rissa Pless, Secretary of the Senior Class, gave a response to the welcome. Tim White then presented the Grand March. The prom was a success and will be one to be remembered by all who attended that magical night of "Tropical Dreams".

DREAMS



Senior Appreciation Day. There were three words to describe it—fun, excitement, and RAIN. Amid spring showers, students became involved in frisbee throws, foozball tournaments, volleyball and softball games, or just being with their friends. This special day, planned for the seniors, was arranged by the FTA, who served lunch, refreshments, and set up the activities. The highlights of the day were the announcing of the Senior Superlatives and the Beauty Contest, in which West's most prominent "ladies" were exhibited. The day ended in a competitive, but fun tug-of-war out on the football field. This day will certainly be one to be remembered by the seniors—not only for the sake of getting out of classes, but also as a day in which all of the seniors were together.



Senior Appreciation Day

Student Council

This year the student council and officers really worked hard to make the year 1976-1977 great. They sponsored many events such as the homecoming dance and the candy drive. At Christmas the student council and officers helped with the White Christmas and put up the school's Christmas tree. They also helped in the student exchange with other local schools. The students who wanted to go and visit another school or show the student exchange people around West, filled out an application and three people were chosen. (Right) Student Council Advisor, Mrs. L.B. Jacobs. (Below) Student Council Officers: President, Teresa Atwood; Vice-President, Laura Simmons; 2nd Vice-President, John Gibson; Secretary, Anne Enloe, Treasurer, Connie Cline.

FBLA Club

Officers: President, Gail Harkey; Vice President, Cindy Myers; Treasurer, Mary Ruth Blackwelder; Secretary, Margie Beaver, Assistant Secretary, Tammy Yost; Reporters, Karen Johnson, and Kathy Fraley. The FBLA helped with the March of Dimes. They also had some guest speakers and visited Rowan Tech and Salisbury Business College.

Health Careers Club

Officers: President, Diana Pearson; Vice President, Tina Ridenhour; Secretary, Dawn Ivey; Treasurer, Sylvia Barber; Reporter, Karen Saintsing. The Health Career members were involved in the Walk-a-Thon, sponsored by the Jaycees. They also made Thanksgiving and Christmas projects for nursing homes.

Future Teachers Of America

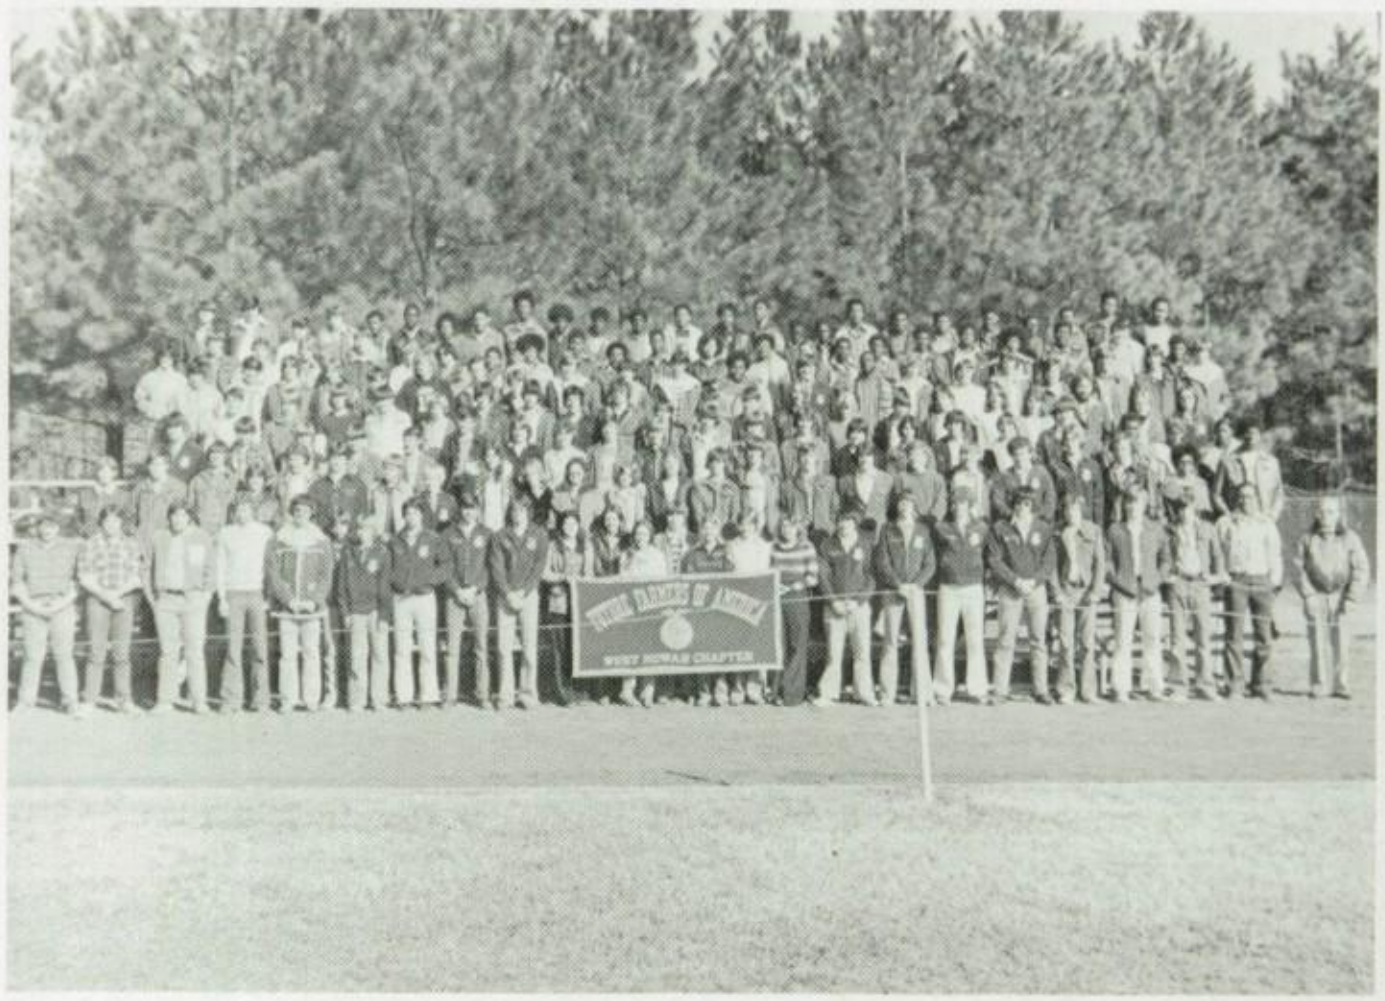
Officers: President, Gail Deal; Vice President, Bobbie Lynn Myers; Secretary, Tina Steele; Treasurer, Elaine Barber; Reporter, Lisa Snyder. The most outstanding event that the FTA did was American Education Week. They really had some great speakers and events. The FTA also planned the Senior Appreciation Day, made Easter baskets, and went to the Pineville Dinner Theatre.

Future Homemakers Of America

Officers: President, Tammy Fraley; Vice President, Rita Snider; Secretary, Debbie Foster; Reporter, Sherri Cartner; Historian, Barbara Jean Graham; Recreational Leader, Jule Ramsey. The FHA did many activities during FHA Week. They also had refreshments in the teachers lounge and sent the teachers Valentines. The FHA sponsored the door decoration contest at Christmas.

Future Farmers Of America

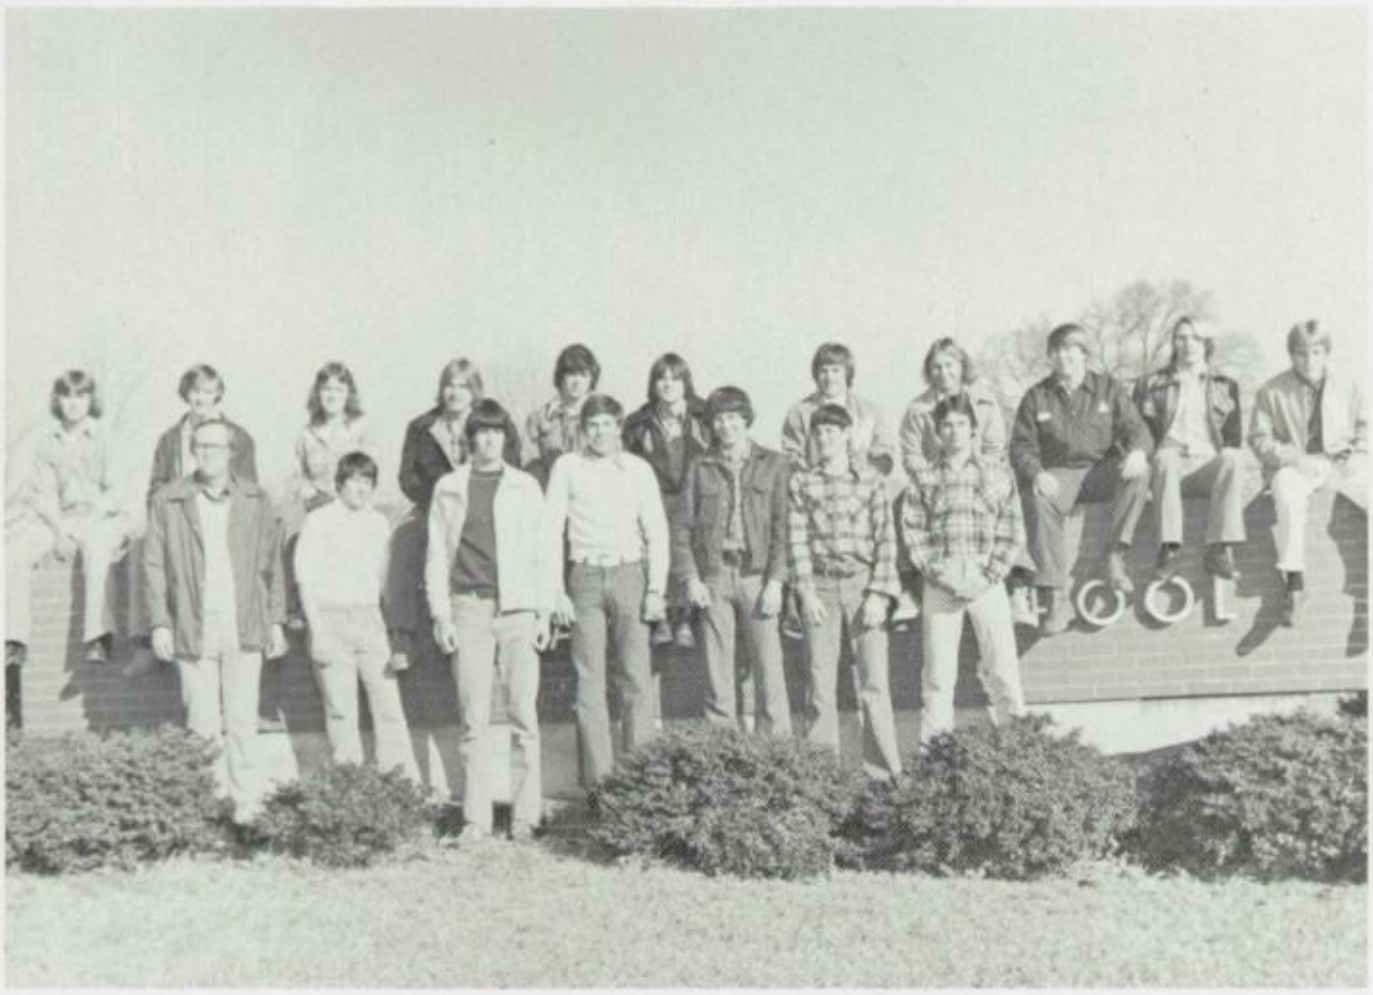
Officers: President, Mark Wetmore; Vice President, Wesley Steele; Secretary, Emory Graham; Treasurer, Tim Smith; Reporter, Emory Hutt; Sentinel, Larry Cranford. This year the FFA won first place in Dairy Judging and second place in Livestock Judging. Emory Graham won first place in the Rowan County Wildlife Contest.



DECA

Officers: President, Tina Steele; Vice President, Kim Hartsell; Secretary, Walter Beaver; Treasurer, Marsha Henderson; Reporter, Lou Ann Shoemaker. On the Local Level the DECA club had speakers, meetings and some recreational activities. On the District Level the DECA club participated in district meetings, contests ad elected officers. All DECA members also went to the State DECA Convention.

VICA ICT



Officers: President, Alan Wooten; Vice President, Mark Campbell; Secretary, Robert Webb; Treasurer, Dean Campbell; Reporter, Wesley Steele; Parliamentarian, Scott Correll. The ICT members had an activity day at Dan Nicholas Park. They attended a district workshop and participated in skill contests. Their school project was maintaining activity buses.

VICA Cabinet Making

Officers: President, Lonnie Hoffner; Vice President, Jeff Morrow; Secretary, Rhonda Isenhour; Treasurer, Randy Ward; Reporter, John Gibson; Sentinel, Randy Messick; Parliamentarian, Carrie Poole. The Cabinet Making members built maple tables, gun racks, book shelves, and end tables for the auction which was sponsored by the Boosters Club. They also repaired some of the seats down in the football stadium and built the backboards.

Spanish Club

Officers: President, Susan Owen; Vice President, Barry Parker; Accountant, Biff Yost; Chefs, Gail and Connie Cline. This year the Spanish Club made pinatas, which were full of all sorts of candies. The Spanish Club also had a Christmas party. They went on a trip to Pedros' Restaurant to eat. The Spanish Club really had an exciting year.

French Club

Officers: President, Kim Bringle; Vice President, Jennifer Cress; Secretary, Ann Wilson; Treasurer, Wendy Bradshaw; Advisor, Mrs. Turney. This year the French Club listened to lectures about France. They also had slides and films. The French Club went to eat at a French Restaurant. They also had an exchange student from Belgium come to talk to them.

Bible Club

Officers: President, Mitzi Burleson; Vice President, James Miles; Secretary, Becky McCauley; Treasurer, Loretta Williams; Reporter, Teresa Parham; Song Leader, Tammy Morgan. This year the Bible Club met twice a month. The Bible Club members were able to attend a weekend retreat at Winston Salem and also maintained contact with several missionaries throughout the year.

Talon Staff

Editor, Don Byerly; Lay-Out editor, Carmen Lefler; Copy editor, Mary Christie; Sports editor, Dennis Davidson; Post Correspondants, Cindy Melton; Natalie Beaver. Christmas cards and Valentines were added events to the Talon. Advisor—Mrs. Pugh. The Talon Staff exchanges their newspaper with all of the local schools to get new ideas.

Annual Staff

Editor, Natalie Beaver; David Neel; Bruce Graham; Peggy Eagle; Beverly Petrea; Robyn Carson; Ramona Hardy; Cindy Niederman; Diana Pearson; Sherry Lewis; Janice Torrence; Jane Wilhelm; Dennis Davidson; Sherri Cartner; Debbie Foster; Laura Krieger; Advisor—Mrs. Tarlton. The annual staff members worked very hard to prepare the annual. They also helped with Bandwagon and the scenery.

Senior Teachers' Assistants

Underclassmen Teachers' Assistants

These students did a tremendous job helping the teachers. They helped with experiments, checked papers, typed tests, helped with grades, ran errands for the teachers, and helped put up bulletin boards. They really helped to make the teachers jobs a little easier.

Library Assistants

The Library Assistants had a busy year. They checked library passes, put up old and new books on the shelves, and they gave assistance to students who wanted any magazines. They did a good job of keeping the library in order.

Bus Drivers

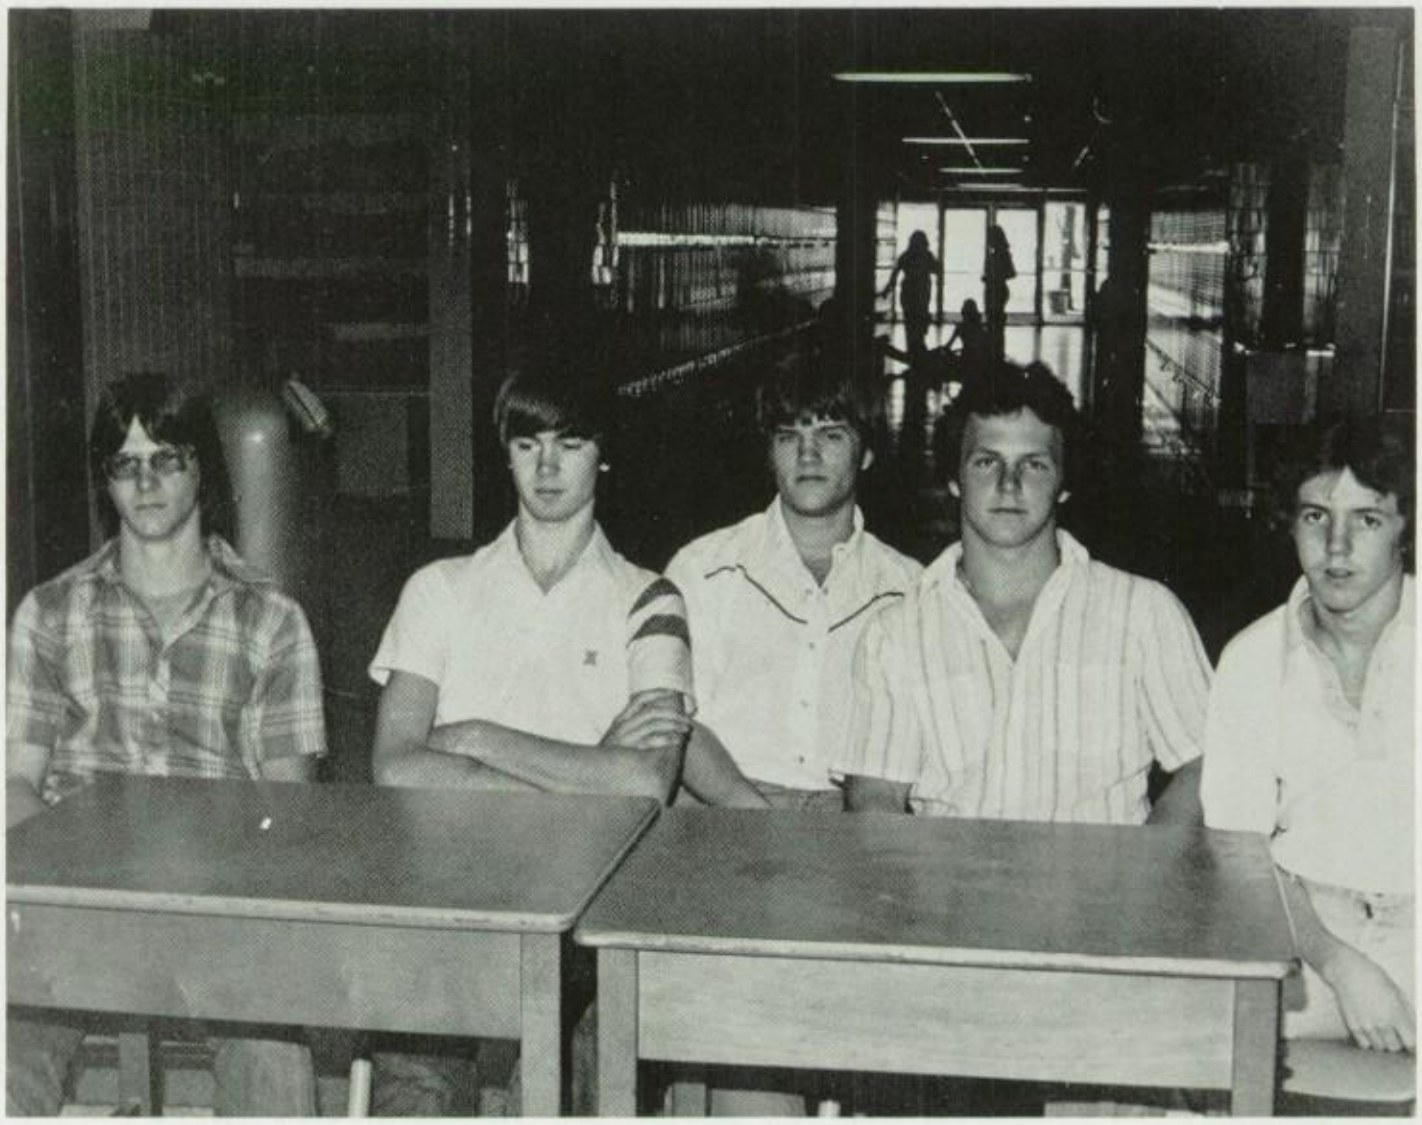
Another year has passed and our bus drivers made it. There was always a big hassle every month about getting bus books in on time and keeping the buses clean. Thanks to them, everyone arrived home safe even though they had some rough times driving in the snow.

Chorus

This year the chorus had an active year under the direction of Mrs. Shores. They went to various clubs in Salisbury to sing. The chorus also went to contest in Charlottee and received an excellent grade. The chorus sang at PTA meetings, for the student body at the Junior High, and also at some of the rest homes in Salisbury.

I.Q. Bowl

This year six students were chosen out of the A.P. English classes for the I.Q. Bowl, in competition at Greensboro with other schools. They were Tim Cohen, Tim Bernhardt, Darrell Fink, Dan Gentry, Bill Belk, and David Neel, (not pictured.)



Interest Groups

This year the clubs and interest groups met every third Wednesday out of the month. Some groups had outings, invited speakers, and sponsered different activities. The clubs and interest groups really had a fun year.

New Members

The NHS began their year with a cookout at Dan Nicholas Park. They also elected officers: President, Neely McLaughlin; Vice President, Mary Jane Pinkston; Secretary, Mark Graham; Treasurer, Janice Torrence; Reporter, Susan Owen. The NHS also had the pleasure of going to Pineville Dinner Theater to see the play "Shenandoah." In the spring they went to the State Legislative Office in Raleigh. On April 14th, forty-four new NHS members were inducted in a candlelight ceremony.

West Rowan Falcon Marching Band

This year the band demonstrated a renewed spirit of half time shows, with flaggirls and majorettes as added attractions. The band also did many new dance steps with the drum majors. The band also performed in the Band-O-Rama, which was one of the highlights of the year. The concert band went to contest, in competition with other schools, and received an excellent rating.

During their stay at summer camp, three cheerleaders learned lots of new cheers and chants which they brought back and taught to the crowds. The entire cheerleading squad planned pep rallies and came up with great new ideas for spirit raising. They finished the year with an awards banquet making this year an unforgettable one. By their dependability and determination they showed support for the athletic teams and the entire student body. Three cheers for the cheerleaders!

Senior Dan Gentry made the all-conference defensive team for his excellent work at linebacker. Above, Dan rambles for valuable yards as the West fullback.

Jimmy Gaither was named to the All-NPC team for his outstanding play at defensive end. The versatile junior athlete also played halfback for the Falcons and was voted the team's most valuable player.

An outstanding blocker, David Drechsler was selected as an all-conference offensive guard. The 6'3" junior was also a super defensive tackle for West.

Falcons Have Competitive Season In 1976

Although the West Rowan football team struggled to a 4-5-1 record in 1976, the Falcons had a very competitive season. West scored big wins over South Iredell, Mooresville and West Iredell and gave both North Rowan and South Rowan a tough battle. At right, head coach Lou Manning signals for a timeout during the homecoming game.

1976-77 Falcon Basketball

West Rowan basketball was just as exciting as ever during the 1976-77 season, but both varsity teams suffered from inconsistency. Coach Melvin Fogg's girls struggled early in the campaign but finished strong, winning six out of their last ten games. The Falcon boys of Coach Tom Wilhelm played well at times and scored big wins over East Rowan, North Davidson and North Stanly. The girls finished with an 11-12 mark while the boys compiled a 10-13 record.

Wrestling 76-77

New coach Gene Ligon took over in 1976-77 and West had a competitive and very good wrestling team. After a 2-13 season in 1975-76, Ligon and his grapplers enjoyed a 5-9 record. That mark is mesleading considering that the Falcons lost five very close matches and with a few breaks could have had a winning season. West was led by All-North Piedmont Conference performers Jon Kennedy and Lamar Poore. Kennedy, a 155-pound junior, was almost unbeatable in posting a 13-1 mark. Poore, only a sophomore, was 11-3 in the 105-pound class. West lost only one senior off this year's squad, Ben Knox, a solid grappler for three years.

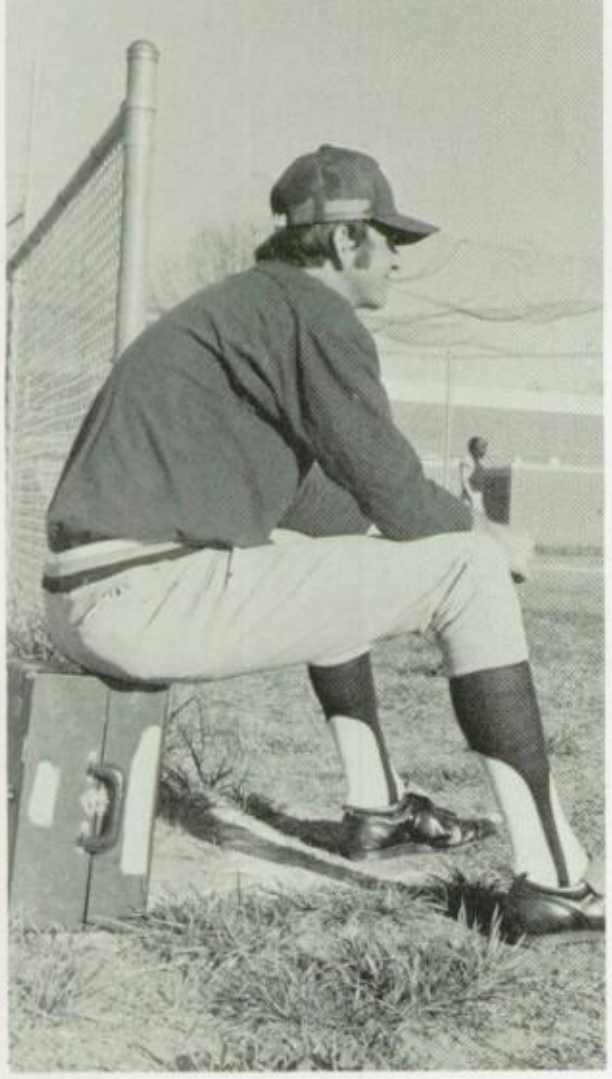
1977 Baseball



Coach Gary Safrit is pleased as he watches his Falcons rip Davie County. Coach Safrit was brilliant through the long season, never once losing his poise or leadership.

The 1977 baseball season turned out to be one of bitter frustration for the Falcons. Inexperience and injuries were the main problems as West struggled to a 3-12 record. They were much better than that mark indicates, however, losing seven close games, including four one-run losses. There were never any morale problems throughout the long season, which reflects on the coach, Gary Safrit. The Falcons lose seniors Dennis Davidson, Gary Graham, Bryan Richardson and Carey Graham off this year's team. Actually, Carey broke his ankle after the second game and was greatly missed.

GRADUATION

The setting was beautiful on June 3, 1977 as all 189 proud Seniors marched out on the football field to receive their diplomas. Mother nature could not have done any better. As usual awards flowed as well as scholarships and around 8:30 the class of '77 mingled into the past.
